- 1) There must be at least one Adult member from each household-even if only your children play-but the Adult can join as a Social member (ie non-playing).
- 2) Full members are entitled to play on any day of the week. Midweek members may play until 6pm from Monday to Friday.
- 3) When playing at the club, you must wear your TDLTC shoe tag, which is provided to all Playing Members.
- 4) New adult Playing Members are entitled to a free coaching course which starts in May.
- 5) Subscriptions cover the full year starting 1st May 2009. Prices are subject to change each year.
- 6) There is no court fee for Playing Members, but there is a fee for any visitor or Social Member wishing to play.
- 7) Membership information is kept confidential to the club. It must not be sold or passed onto any other party. A list of members is made available to members and posted in the clubhouse, to enable you to organise games etc. If you do not wish your telephone number or email address to appear on that list, please advise the Membership Secretary in writing.
- 8) For introducing one or more new fee paying adult members (not members in the previous year), existing adult members will receive a single £25.00 discount on their membership fee for the year. The new member must certify the name of the introducer on their membership application form for the discount to be applied at the discretion of the membership secretary. A reimbursing cheque will follow.
